JOIN US IN STRENGTHENING MATERNAL & CHILD HEALTH IN SIERRA LEONE!

Dates: January 5–30, 2026

(shorter role-specific commitments available—see below)

ABOUT

This January, we're inviting public health and medical professionals to partner with us in building local capacity and supporting maternal and child health initiatives in Sierra Leone through maternal and child health skills training and research.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GET INVOLVED

TRAINER TEAM

- Teach classroom sessions to nurses and midwives on NRP and PPH
- For nurses, midwives, or doctors (FM/OB/Peds focus)
- Jan 15–24, Tonkolili District

PUBLIC HEALTH/RESEARCH LECTURER TEAM

- Provide workshops on evaluation, data collection & analysis, and research skills
- For public health faculty or graduate students
- Jan 15–24, Makeni

SITE VISIT TEAM

- Visit health facilities before & after the conference to collect data
- For graduate research students Jan 12–16 OR Jan 26–30,
- Tonkolili District

ULTRASOUND TRAINING SUPPORT TEAM

- Assistwith ultra soundtraining sessions
- For medical students
- Jan 5–9, Pujahun District

CONFERENCE SUPPORT TEAM

- Data collection, surveys, grading exams, certificate eligibility
- For undergraduate students with health/data background
- Jan 15–24, Tonkolili District

- Why Join?
- Support capacity-building alongside Sierra Leonean partners
- Conduct research in maternal and child health that will directly impact programs
- Gain international training & teaching experience

INTERESTED? EMAIL

Yasmine Vaughan
yasmine@helpingchildren worldwide.org